What we would like to achieve –

Erasmus project as a part of a greater vision for internationalisation Limec SSML's institutional strategy is built around the mission "Build bridges between people, to communicate and grow in respect of individual histories and for the creation of a new Humanism". Knowing, Knowing how to design, Knowing how to do, Knowing how to cooperate, and welcoming to value are the cornerstones of our educational and training mission. All academic and research programmes at Limec SSML are also aimed at developing and sustaining knowledge to support regional and global communities to meet the United Nations sustainability goals. International academic collaboration forms the basis for projects and practices fostering democratic development and crosscultural understanding and are essential for achieving these goals.

Limec SSML is an institution with strong academic ties to other institutions on the U.E. reality and worldwide. A network created since it was Ciels SSML Milan and over time increased at the level of institutional and training and research institutions. During our active participation in the Erasmus programme and international researches in Sociological, Historical, Criminological, Linguistic, Politological, Marketing, Tourism Development, ICT and IOT and Intercultural fields, we have established partnerships with approximately 20 Institutions in programme Countries as well as international mobility and researches cooperation projects with partners in Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Cina, Brazil, Israel, Canada and Morocco. Our institution has been an active participant in both mobility and strategic partnerships projects. European cooperation and the Erasmus programme are specifically emphasised in our Internationalisation strategy and will remain highest on the priority agenda for the future international development of our Institution. On national level, participation in the Erasmus programme and other programmes funded by the European Union is strongly encouraged.

Limec SSML put the internationalization at the core of its purposes focusing its international strategy on excellence in education and the quality of learning results. The ERASMUS network is an important part of the internationalisation strategy. Mobility programs aim to complement Limec SSML curriculum by providing opportunities for students to experience international education first-hand.

As a Higher Education Institution specialized in Linguistic Mediation Science, Limec enacts international cooperation policies addressed to all Higher Education Institutions offering academic programs consistent with Limec programs, but also to all Higher Education Institutions offering academics programs on subjects of our specialization fields. Partner Institutions will be chosen ensuring adequate academic standards for students. Agreements will be made with institutions offering similar programs but also with those providing complementary programs.

By participating in the Erasmus Program, Limec aims to achieve the following objectives, related to maintaining the centrality of internationalization for future professionals and citizens facing national, global and glocal challenges:

- 1) to constantly improve the quality of teaching and training, always increasing and updating the international profiles of study programs;
- 2) to establish close links with European institutions of higher education oriented to linguistic and social sciences and their application in the fields of Criminological Sciences; Sport Management; Fashion and Emerging Brands; Digital Marketing and Business Development; Tourism and Cultural Heritage Policy Promotion; Intercultural Mediation; and Development of IOT and ICT professionals;
- 3) to enable Limec graduates to validate the skills acquired in Italy with the enrichment of new notions and human and social relations in the international sphere, in order to better face the international cultural and work challenges they will face as future professionals at European and non-European levels.
